

Job Ad - Ministry Development Manager

About the organisation

Our client is a Christian not-for-profit organisation committed to equipping the under-resourced Church globally. Through the provision of Bible-based programs, literacy initiatives, and leadership development, they support communities where access to Scripture and discipleship resources is limited.

About the Role

As the Ministry Development Manager, you'll provide leadership and direction for Bible League International's ministry activities across Australia and New Zealand. You'll play a key role in developing strategic partnerships with churches, ministry leaders, and Christian organisations to expand ministry impact and engagement throughout the region.

Working closely with the CEO and Regional Director, you'll lead ministry development initiatives, oversee key programs, and support the growth of Bible League's mission through relationship building, training, strategic planning, and ministry leadership.

This is a permanent full-time position with flexibility in managing work hours. The role involves regular regional, interstate, and occasional international travel to support ministry activities, church partnerships, conferences, and training initiatives.

Key Responsibilities

- Lead and implement ministry strategies across Australia and New Zealand
- Conduct training sessions, workshops, and ministry events to support program implementation.
- Build and strengthen partnerships with churches, pastors, and ministry organisations
- Support the growth and delivery of Bible League ministry programs and initiatives
- Conduct ministry training, workshops, and church presentations
- Monitor ministry outcomes and identify opportunities for growth and improvement
- Assist with ministry budgeting, reporting, and administration
- Represent Bible League at churches, conferences, and ministry events
- Maintain strong communication and collaboration with internal and international teams

What We're Looking For

- Active involvement in a Christian Church and alignment with the organisation's mission and values.
- Alignment with Bible League's mission, Statement of Faith, Funding Philosophy, and Core Values
- Demonstrated leadership experience within a church, ministry, or Christian not-for-profit environment
- Experience building relationships and partnerships with churches and ministry leaders
- Strong communication, presentation, and relationship-building skills
- Experience in strategic planning, ministry development, or program leadership
- Ability to work autonomously while collaborating effectively with teams
- Proficiency in Microsoft Office and CRM systems
- Current driver's licence, with access to an insured motor vehicle and willingness to travel regularly

Desirable:

- Qualifications or formal training in Theology, Ministry, or a related discipline
- Experience delivering ministry training or leadership development programs
- Understanding of church engagement and discipleship initiatives

How to Apply

If you're passionate about equipping churches, building ministry partnerships, and advancing Gospel-centred ministry across Australia and New Zealand, we'd love to hear from you.

Please submit your CV and a brief cover letter to divy@enrichhr.com.au outlining your experience and interest in the role.

Only successful candidates will be contacted.
